Professional Certificate in Strategic Policy Planning

13th - 15th December 2023 | Virtual Learning

Dear GilbertT,

The International Centre for Parliamentary Studies would like to invite you and your colleagues to participate in our Professional Certificate in Strategic Policy Planning which will be held on 13th - 15th December 2023 (Virtual Learning). Below you will find the details of the course:

Course Overview

Robust policy is critical for any government department to reach its desired goals. Strategic planning demands a clear role within the policy process to enable effective policy making and improve relationships with all stakeholders.

13 DEC 2023

The course has been designed for all those working in policy environments, whether at the early stages of evaluating policy proposals and options or at later stages of delivery and evaluation. Through practical case studies, workshops and discussions with leading practitioners in the field, the programme provides the essential skills for ensuring best practice in strategic thinking, planning and managing the policy process from beginning to end. Participants will improve their understanding of the policy narrative and be fully equipped to develop, deliver and assess a range of policy options concurrent with their organisation's needs. Participants will leave with the ability to communicate and influence the policy process, crucial for those working in governance and key stakeholders.

Topics Include

- Working with stakeholders in policy development
- Consultations, statutory obligations and best practice
- Communicating policy options
- Option appraisal
- Delivery chains
