Department of Education – Naga City
Triangulo, Legazpi City

Dear SDS Collano:

Maogmang Naga!

We are respectfully forwarding for your kind endorsement to the teachers and other stakeholders of Department of Education-Naga City the herein attached letter of Naga City Ballroom Aficionados (NCBA), a group of dance enthusiasts who, in cooperation with your proactive office, are planning to organize the Dancesport Coaches Workshop and Accreditation on February 22-24, 2024 at Sta. Cruz Event Center, Queborac Drive, Barangay Sta. Cruz, Naga City.

The objectives of the aforesaid training and workshop are:

1. To train participants in the basic steps of Latin and Standard Discipline;
2. To conduct examination and accreditation for the Coaches who will participate in the said training;
3. To promote camaraderie among the members of the Dancesport Community, especially in the DepEd family within the Bicol Region

A memorandum or letter issued in favor of the abovementioned activity will surely increase the number of participants thereto, especially that this is the first time in Naga City that Dancesport coaches will be accredited by the Philippine Dancesport Federation.

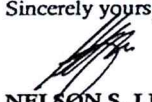

Among the resource speakers of the said event are Sir Crisaldo "Loloi" Rendon, Director of the Dancesport Council of the Philippines, and Sir Lowell Louie Basa Tan, National Adjudicator of the Philippine Dancesport Federation. They will be joined by esteemed members and officers from Dancesport Academy of Cebu City.

To defray, however, the expenses of accommodation, speakers' fee and to cover the costs for accreditation, the NCBA will be charging a minimal registration fee of Five Hundred Pesos (Php 500.00) for teachers, coaches and trainers, and Three Hundred Pesos (Php 300.00) for students and athletes.

We hope that our collective aspiration to advance Dancesport in Naga City and to promote the holistic development of our children will merit your kindest consideration of this matter.

Dios mabalos!

Sincerely yours,

NELSON S. LEGACION
