1. This Office through the Policy, Planning, and Research Division directs all Schools Division Superintendents through the assigned Focal Person on the updating of the monitoring of schools that shifted to ADM due to the extreme weather conditions and other disturbances through this link <https://bit.ly/SY2023-2024SubmissionModality>.
2. Further, all concerned are reminded that the temporarily assigned Focal Person for the reporting is the Division Planning Officer, should the SDO wish to assign other Personnel from their respective SDO, please immediately notify this Office. The access to and filing up of the sheets shall be limited to the Focal Person at Schools Division Offices only, the schools are prohibited to access, edit, and encode data in the sheets. The required information must be updated accordingly once changes in the learning delivery modality are implemented.
3. Furthermore, the data will be collected every Friday of the week at 4:00 PM. The first generation will be on April 5, 2024.
4. Immediate dissemination of and strict compliance with this Memorandum is desired.
