National and International Hybrid Seminar in Teaching, Leadership and Skills Training for Educators and Employees
Title of the Courses	Course Description	Course Duration	Course Inclusion
1. Seminar on Guiding Principles in Teaching and Classroom Management.	Most teachers tend to go into the teaching profession because they believe they can positively impact the lives of children and youth. While teachers can and do make a difference in students' lives, the process can be complex, especially when confronted with behavior. Student problem behavior, along with school discipline, has consistently been reported as one of the top concerns among teachers. 1 as one of the greatest demands on time. 2, causing teachers to experience increased rates of stress and burnout 3, and, in some cases, leading to their decision to leave education 4. When teachers are not able to effectively manage their classroom, students experience poorer outcomes 5. Therefore, to support all teachers and students in achieving maximum benefit from the learning experience, it is critical to create a positive and productive educational environment for overall success. 	to introduce evidence-based classroom practices for classroom management, such as those associated with Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS), as an approach to establishing an effective classroom management system.
2. International Seminar on Developing Classroom Teaching and Leadership in Schools.	Effective educational leadership makes a difference in improving learning. There's nothing new or especially controversial about that idea. What's far less clear, even after several decades of school renewal efforts, is just how leadership matters, how important those effects are in promoting the learning of all children, and what the essential ingredients of successful leadership are. Lacking solid evidence to answer these questions, those who have sought to make the case for greater attention and investment in leadership as a pathway for large-scale education improvement have had to rely more on faith than fact.	January-December 2024 (monthly in tentative dates) 32hours total	-Certificate of Attendance -Certificate of Participation -Certificate for License Renewal (optional)

3. Seminar on the Domains of PPST.	Teachers play a crucial role in nation building. Through quality teachers, the Philippines can develop holistic learners who are steeped in values, equipped with 21st century skills, and able to propel the country to development and progress. This is in consonance with the Department of Education vision of producing: "Filipinos who passionately love their country and whose values and competencies enable them to realize their full potential and contribute meaningfully to building the nation" (DepED Order No. 36, s. 2013). 4. Seminar on Content and Pedagogy in K-12.	Broken down into its components, Content Knowledge refers to the body of information and skills that are relevant to a particular subject. Pedagogy encompasses specific teaching approaches and strategies that support student learning. Combining these terms allows educators to think intentionally about the how of teaching considering what students need to learn. 5. Communication Skills Development for Effective Classroom Delivery International Seminar.	Communication is key in the classroom; successful teaching is generally considered to require only 50% knowledge to 50% communication skills. As a result, a teacher should be proficient in all four modes of communication – listening, speaking, reading, and writing – and should know how to utilize this proficiency effectively in a school environment. Being able to do this has been proven to impact the success students achieve in their academic lives, as well as the teacher's own career success. 13. Seminar on Educational Innovation and Pedagogies for Teachers of English, Science, Mathematics, Filipino, Social Studies, MAPEH, ESP, TLE Majors.	Pedagogy is at the heart of teaching and learning. Preparing young people to become lifelong learners with a deep knowledge of subject matter and strong social skills requires understanding how pedagogy influences learning. Doing so shifts the perception of teachers from technicians who strive to attain the education goals set by the curriculum to experts in the art and science of teaching. Seen through this lens, innovation in teaching becomes a problem-solving process rooted in teachers' professionalism, a normal response to constantly changing classrooms.	January-December 2024 (quarterly in tentative date) 80hour total	-Certificate of Attendance -Certificate of Participation -Certificate for License Renewal (optional)

15. Early Childhood Development Teacher Skills Development Training	Currently, technology is a crucial part of any industry—including ECE. Kids today are more adept at technology than the previous generations as they have grown up exposed to all kinds of digital technology, particularly smartphones and tablets. And in the classroom, technology has become an important tool in teaching. Early literacy programs aim to help children from 1 to 3 years familiarize themselves with concepts such as phonetics, word sounds, vocabulary, and storytelling awareness even before they go to preschool. These learning concepts improve children's literacy skills, particularly vocabulary and reading comprehension, increasing their preparedness for childhood education.	January-December 2024 (quarterly in tentative date) 80hours total	-Certificate of Attendance -Certificate of Participation
