Subject: Virtual Workshop (28-hour): Did you know that policy impact assessment can be done using Excel?

Policy Formulation, Development, Writing and Impact Assessment In-depth Training Workshop - April 6, 13, 20 and 27, 2024 (PHP2500.00)

A flawed policy can lead to a negative impact, particularly in terms of eroding credibility and trust among stakeholders.

Policy writing, formulation, and development are important skills in government, academia, NGOs, healthcare, and businesses. Policies define how organizations and stakeholders interact with each other. However, the process of policy-making does not begin and end with writing and disseminating. It is crucial for organizations to evaluate whether policies are effective, using statistical analyses. In this workshop, we will teach you how to use Microsoft Excel for assessing the impact of policies.

An effective policy is distinguished by its clarity, specificity, achievable goals, evidence-based approach, flexibility, inclusivity, fairness, transparency, accountability, enforceability, measurable outcomes, consistency, and participatory nature. These essential elements, grounded in the core principles and best practices of policy-making and management, ensure the success and sustainability of a policy.

Join our 'Policy Formulation, Development, Writing, and Impact Assessment Workshop' and become part of the 98.6% who successfully apply these vital skills. Scheduled for April 6, 13, 20, and 27, 2024, this ZOOM workshop is priced at only PHP 2500.00.

Workshop Highlights:

- Integrate your policy with your organization's strategic plan.
- Master the art of writing successful, sustainable policies with a clear, evidence-based approach.
- Learn critical statistical techniques in Excel to measure policy impact effectively.

Who Should Attend?

This workshop is ideal for professionals across various fields, including finance, HR, administration, and IT. Gain skills that will elevate your professional profile and enhance your organization's success.
