Invitation to Understanding and Utilizing Media in Teaching National Webinar on June 28, 2024

Isang makabatang araw!

The National Council for Children's Television (NCCT) is created pursuant to Republic Act No. 8370, otherwise known as the "Children's Television Act of 1997," to promote and encourage the production and broadcast of developmentally appropriate television programs for Filipino children. The NCCT is an attached agency to the Department of Education under Executive Order no. 203, s. 2003. Aligned with its objective, Section 7 of R.A. 8370 states that the NCCT must promote media education.

Since its establishment, the NCCT has been extending its media education services to Filipino children, parents/guardians, and educators all over the country with the support of private organizations, local government units, and various divisions of the Department of Education. With the help of its partners, NCCT works towards its strategic goal to institutionalize media education in the Philippines by 2030.

This June 28, we are delighted to share with you that the National Council for Children's Television (NCCT) is hosting a national webinar on Understanding and Utilizing Media in Teaching (UUMT) for Junior High School Educators.

The lectures in this program will be delivered via Zoom from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., free and accessible to all attendees upon registration through this link:

<https://bit.ly/2024UUMTNationalWebinar>

Understanding and Utilizing Media in Teaching is a media literacy seminar workshop designed for teachers in basic education. This program aims to equip K-12 teachers to deconstruct media messages for themselves and their students in a way that supports the learning of various subject areas.

The official communication letter is attached to this email for your reference. For questions or clarifications, please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Aiah Patricia P. Macalindong, MILES' Focal Person, by emailing her at medialiteracy@ncct.gov.ph.

Thank you very much, and we look forward to serving the Filipino teachers this

Dear Regional Director Sadsad:

Isang makabatang araw!

The National Council for Children's Television (NCCT) was established pursuant to Republic Act No. 8370, otherwise known as the "Children's Television Act of 1997," to promote and encourage the production and broadcast of developmentally appropriate television programs for Filipino children. The NCCT is an attached agency to the Department of Education under Executive Order no. 203, s. 2003. Aligned with its objective, Section 7 of R.A. 8370 states that the NCCT must promote media education within the formal school system and other non-formal means through partnerships with government and non-government organizations.

Since its establishment, the NCCT has been extending its media education services to Filipino children, parents/guardians, and educators across the country with the support of private organizations, local government units, and various divisions of the Department of Education. With the support of its partners, NCCT works toward its strategic goal to institutionalize media education in the Philippines by 2030.

On June 28, the NCCT is holding a national webinar on Understanding and Utilizing Media in Teaching (UUMT) for junior high school educators interested in integrating media literacy into their lessons. The lectures in this program will be delivered via Zoom from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., free and accessible to all attendees upon registration through this link: <https://bit.ly/2024UUMTNationalWebinar>.
