Dear Dr. Sadsad;

Greetings of Peace!

I am writing to formally request your esteemed advisory support for the upcoming 2024 National Convention for Home Economics and Technology Teachers Organization of the Philippines. This event is scheduled to take place from November 21-23, 2024, at Teachers Camp, Baguio City, with the theme: "Sustainable Implementation of Innovative Skills in Home Economics and Technology Education."

This convention aims to enhance the professional development of home economics and technology educators by providing them with the latest strategies and innovative practices in the field. As an accredited training by the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC), participants will earn Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points, making this event invaluable for their professional growth.

Your advisory support would not only lend credibility to our convention but also inspire attendees to engage deeply with the topics we will be discussing. We would greatly appreciate any guidance or recommendations you can provide regarding the program, speakers, or any other aspect of the event.

Thank you for considering our request. We are excited about the potential impact of this convention on our educators and the students they serve. I look forward to your positive response.

Warm regards,

Joselito P. Patio, EdD.
HETTOP President

Dear Dr. Sadsad

Greetings of Peace!

The officers and members of Home Economics and Technology Teachers' Organization of the Philippines (HETTOP), Inc. will conduct its NATIONAL CONVENTION: SUSTAINABLE IMPLEMENTATION OF INNOVATIVE SKILLS IN HOME ECONOMICS AND TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION which will be held from November 21-23, 2024, at the Carlos P. Romulo Hall, Teachers Camp, Baguio City. We expect more than 250 participants from all-over the Philippines.

On behalf of HETTOP Inc., I am writing to request an ADVISORY from the Department of Education for our upcoming event which aims to bring together over 250 participants from across the Philippines, including educators and professionals specializing in Agri-Fishery Arts, Home Economics, Industrial Arts, and Information and Communication Technology. The training is accredited by the Philippine Regulation Commission (PRC), and CPD points will be awarded to all attendees.

The knowledge and skills to be imparted during this convention are both timely and relevant, addressing the latest innovations in teaching methodologies and technology integration. We are pleased to announce that our event will feature competent and highly commendable keynote and resource speakers who are leaders in their respective fields. Their expertise and insights will provide invaluable contributions to the professional development of our attendees.

By focusing on the sustainable implementation of innovative practices, our sessions will equip educators with cutting-edge tools and strategies to enhance their instructional effectiveness and adapt to the rapidly evolving educational landscape.

We believe that an advisory from the Department of Education will greatly enhance the visibility and impact of this event, encouraging more educators to participate and benefit from this valuable professional development opportunity.

Attached herewith are the necessary documents for your perusal, including the event program, matrix of activity, and registration details. We respectfully request the Department's endorsement to maximize outreach and facilitate the involvement of more educators.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your favorable response.

Warm regards,
